Counsel for Commercial Litigation, Governance
Sensitive Disputes and Strategic Legal Advisory

Professional Profile

Adv. Itumeleng Moeletsi is an Advocate of the High Court of South Africa since January 2017 with a focus on commercial litigation, dispute strategy, governance related disputes, legal opinions, tribunal and commission based work, and complex legal advisory. Her practice is centred on matters where legal complexity intersects with commercial consequence, institutional accountability, regulatory exposure and stakeholder sensitivity. She works with attorneys, businesses, boards, executives and institutional stakeholders to develop litigation ready matters, strengthen evidentiary positioning, structure legal argument and advise on defensible dispute pathways.

Adv. Moeletsi's professional background spans technology, fintech, payments, software and professional services environments, including experience linked to complex contracting, governance, compliance, regulatory frameworks, privacy, internal controls, enterprise legal risk and stakeholder sensitive decision making.
